

Bill Tedesco – Vice President - Marketing

Bill is a former aerospace and automotive design engineer with more than 30 years of experience in developing business-to-business communications for domestic OEMs and Tier I suppliers, including marketing communications, public relations, promotions, web copywriting, meetings, and training development programs. He has also served as a speechwriter for automotive executives.